Thankful for Those Who Heed the Call Call for Workers 2017 LWML Convention

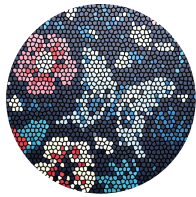

There are several ways for volunteers to easily respond to the Call for Workers. You can select the method (A, B, or C) that works best for you. Please encourage potential volunteers to mark all areas where they can serve, and submit their forms today!

- A Find the paper Call for Workers form at your church or LWML group:
1. Complete the form with your information, and
  2. Mail to Sheryl VerWey at PO BOX 225, Hansen, ID 83334.
- B Go to the Rocky Mountain District's website,
www.lwmlrmd.org/call-for-workers/:
1. Scroll down and fill out the form online;
  2. Click on "Submit Form" when finished; and
  3. Your form will be sent electronically to Sheryl VerWey.
- C Go to your district's website:
1. Click on the "print and mail" form;
  2. Download it to your computer and save the file;
  3. Fill out the form by typing in the information;
  4. Save it; and
  5. Email the form to Sheryl VerWey at sheryllwml2017@gmail.com.

Please request each society to list this information in the church bulletin/newsletter to enable your members to complete the form with ease. As some potential workers do not have computers, also encourage them to provide printed Call for Workers forms at your church or LWML group.

Remember that the convention registration form that will be available in the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly is NOT for convention volunteers. Volunteers will register differently and only after receiving a discount coupon.

With Joy and Privilege to Serve

It was such a joy and privilege for the district officers to attend and participate in the zone rallies! What fun to meet, greet, and visit with LWMLers and brothers in Christ all over the Rocky Mt. District. Many of the zones' "in-gatherings" were items to be used at the 2017 National LWML Convention in Albuquerque, NM, June 22–25, 2017. See page 6 for the collected items. In addition to those items, the knitted/crocheted wash cloths and "scrubbies" are also needed. The fantastic idea behind the knitted/crocheted items is that individuals all over the district can personally (or as a group) be a part of the convention by making these items. The participation to date has been OVERWHELMING! Thank you, Rocky Mt. District, for your generous help and participation. "Workers" for the 2017 Convention are still needed. Take a moment right now to go to the lwmlrmd.org website to fill out and submit the form. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to help host a National LWML Convention! It's a lot of FUN work, and you'll want to be there.

As we ready our hearts and homes for our Thanksgiving celebrations this November, the time is now to thank you for all you do to serve your Lord with gladness. LWML RMD is greatly blessed with many gifted, talented, and generous LWMLers who encourage, mentor, and promote the love of Christ and the sharing of the Gospel in your families, neighborhoods, churches, communities, district, nation, and world. Keep up the good work and remember Philippians 4:13: I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Did your church celebrate/recognize an LWML Sunday? It's a great opportunity to share/educate about LWML RMD through a bulletin insert, bookmark, or display. I encourage you to set aside in your church one Sunday of the year to thank God for His abundant blessings to LWML and to ask for His continued guidance and blessings as "we assist each woman of LCMS in affirming her relationship with God so that she is enabled to use her gifts in ministry to the people of the world."

LWML RMD is continuing to plan for the upcoming 2018 district convention at the Harvest House, June 8–10, 2018 in Boulder, CO. The Nominating Committee is still looking for a few good women and men to run for district offices. Could God be inviting you to try a "new look?"

The Time is Now to prayerfully consider serving. We need candidates for President, Vice President of Gospel Outreach, Vice President of Servant Resources, Nominating Committee, and Jr. Pastoral Counselor. Contact Beth Weber, LaVon Watson, Norma Rivera, Mary Marten, or Betty Brunner and volunteer "to run" for an office, or suggest a name whom you know is qualified to serve in one of the offices. As God told Joshua, He also tells us: Be strong and of good courage; be not frightened, neither be dismayed; for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. (Joshua 1:9 RSV) You can do this!

Right Now in LWML RMD we need an Archivist/Historian and a Convention Coordinator "Shadow." We also need a Denver-area host for the Board of Directors Meeting, February 24–25, 2017. Please contact me if you'd be willing to serve in one of these capacities or have a suggestion of someone to serve in one of these areas.

Have a blessed and joyous Thanksgiving.

Sylvia

Now Thank We All Our God

Thanksgiving has always been one of my favorite holidays. I like that it is not over-commercialized. I like the emphasis on being thankful for friends, family, food, and all the good things we have in this life. Though many people today have forgotten exactly who it is we should be thanking on this special day, as Christians, we know the One who has given us all good things. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights. (James 1:17) We know the one true God, and so we offer up to Him our praise and thanksgiving.

One thing that has often struck me as odd about our current culture is how Thanksgiving Day, which emphasizes contentment and joy for the abundant blessings we have been given, is followed up by the most frenzied, chaotic shopping day of the year. Just one day after we say, “Wow, I have been given so much,” millions of Americans say, “I won’t be content until I have more and more and more.” Not that it’s wrong to go shopping when there is a good sale, but perhaps we should ask the question, “Has the culture’s unhealthy obsession with material goods skewed our views of thankfulness?”

As you gather in the Lord’s house this Thanksgiving, you very well may sing this familiar hymn:

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mothers’ arms
Has blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love
And still is ours today. (LSB 895:1)

This hymn was written by Pastor Martin Rinckart of Eilenburg, Germany. It was written in the midst of the Thirty Years’ War. His town was sacked three times. Armies raged around the town. Refugees flocked to the city, causing famine and disease. It is said that during this time Rinckart would sometimes perform 40 to 50 funerals a day. Even his own wife died from the plague during these years. Yet, in the midst of such suffering, he penned the words, “Now thank we all our God.” He intended it as a simple prayer, which he used to thank God for the little amount of food that was available to him.

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices

One might wonder, after so much suffering, how Rinckart could write a hymn of thanks to God. Despite his suffering, he realized what incredible blessings he had been given. He still had God’s saving grace through Jesus Christ. No power could ever take that from him. He had enough to support his life. He gave thanks for what he had, instead of being resentful of what he did not have. He also knew that God could use suffering to strengthen His people and make His glory known.

As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, may we truly take stock of all the blessings that God has given to us. Give thanks to Him for all earthly gifts, but even more important, give thanks to Him for the gift of life and salvation through Jesus Christ.

The Table at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Lakewood, CO

The Table ministers to the working poor and homeless in the Lakewood area. The volunteers prepare and serve a meal on Thursday evening that is followed by a contemporary worship service and time for Christian fellowship for an average of 85 people a week. Currently, Pastor Ross is focusing on Philippians in his sermon series which leads to more discussion during the fellowship time. This outreach has resulted in one confirmation and one marriage. While the space for the service and the meal is in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church Commons area and most of the volunteers that lead the service, prepare and serve the meal are members of Bethlehem, there is no financial support for food or worship materials. Approximately $150.00 per week is needed for food which is currently funded by donations of attendees and local donations. As the attendance has increased these funds were becoming insufficient. The volunteers and attendees are very grateful for our support of this mission grant! Please keep The Table in your prayers as you drop your coins in your Mites box.

In a Heartbeat

According to the Mayo Clinic, the fifth week of pregnancy, or the third week after conception, the heart and the other organs begin to form and by week six the baby's heart begins to beat.

The tiny, dark spot on the sonogram photo is the heart of my friend's first grandchild. What an amazing photo! Psalm 139:13 comes to mind, For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. God created woman to be a helpmate, bear children and take care of the family.

When we attend church and see these young families bring their children to be baptized and attend Sunday School, we should embrace, encourage, and pray for them. These children will eventually learn the Bible stories and sing those familiar songs like, "I've got the joy, joy, joy, joy, down in my heart, down in my heart, down in my heart, I've got the joy, joy joy, joy, down in my heart, down in my heart to stay." And, "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands." One of those verses says, "He's got the itty, bitty baby, in His hands, He's got the itty, bitty baby, in His hands, He's got the itty, bitty baby in His hands, He's got the world in His hands!"

Many families say that it's not easy to bring children to church every week; that may be true but when the family makes it a priority, it will work. Children look forward to seeing their friends and delight in the stories and crafts in Sunday School.

God bless the dedicated teachers who use their spiritual gifts to teach children so they may grow up loving and trusting God throughout their entire life!

Our LWML has a young women's ministry and a teen ministry. They study God's Word and gather together often to encourage each other as they grow in their faith. If you know a young lady or have a teen as a granddaughter, invite them to the next LWML function. It will bless their life. They will learn that God puts us in relationships so we are not alone. He wants us to depend upon Him!

Remember when Jesus' disciples asked Him who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven and Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3) and when Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (Matthew 19:14)

Darlene Markle
VP Servant
Resources

Be sure to encourage the young families in your congregation. Pray and sing with them! We can even learn from them by just watching their child-like faith! Here are some scriptures I found that will encourage your heart too.

David's troubled heart wrote, "Create in me a clean heart O God and renew a steadfast spirit within me." Ps 51:10

God told Ezekiel in 36:26, "I will give you, (the Israelites) a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you a heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh."

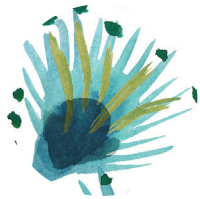

Psalm 34:18 talks about a broken heart. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Proverbs 4:23 says, Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.

And lastly, check out page 686 in the Lutheran Service Book, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing", and look at the third verse. "Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above."

Check out our website, www.lwml.org/youth and you will find resources for youth in Mission which was formerly known as Teen LWML. You will find Christ-Centered resources for youth and adults.

Fall rallies are a memory, and plans are in the works for next year's rally or a possible spring workshop or prayer service. As you begin your planning, remember to check out the sketches and devotions available on our District website.

Have you checked out the LWM store on www.lwml.org? There are a number of new items available, such as new butterfly coasters, flash drives (one for men, one for women), butterfly mouse pad, LWML M&M's. Check it out. Some of these items were available at the rallies. The 2015–2017 LWML catalog is available as a free download or just visit the LWML Store online to shop.

Many devotional and program resources are available for FREE on the LWML website (www.lwml.org). - 1335 erasers (completed)
- 330 backpacks (need 233 more)

Help LWML on Giving Tuesday, November 29, 2016

Giving Tuesday is a global day of giving fueled by the power of social media and collaboration. While many people are focused on their holiday and end of the year giving, it helps kick off the charitable season. This event is celebrated on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving and the shopping events of Black Friday and Cyber Monday.

Last year, the LWML launched its first Giving Tuesday campaign. Giving Tuesday is an opportunity to build awareness of LWML and our mission grant support to the online community and reach new supporters. Last year, we used Facebook and Twitter to share information and encourage online donations, and raised $7,140 in one day! We would like to build on that success and involve more LWML women in spreading the word. This year, we have received a matching grant of up to $10,000, so your impact is doubled.

How can you help?

- Continue to pray for our mission grants. Pray that the mission of LWML is shared with more people through events like Giving Tuesday.
- Publicize the event ahead of time through newsletters, press releases, bulletin inserts and website posting.
- Share our special mission-focused Facebook posts on Giving Tuesday, November 29, 2016.
- Encourage friends, who may not know about LWML, to support our outreach and mission grants with their donations.
- Make an online donation on Giving Tuesday, November 29, 2016. Each donation will be matched up to $10,000.

Visit our website at

YWR Applications Due January 1, 2017

The 2017 National LWML Convention in Albuquerque is fast approaching and the deadline to apply to be our RMD Young Woman Representative (YWR) is also here. The time is now to apply. Emilee Nieman, the Pecos Zone YWR, who attended the district convention this past summer in Colorado Springs, CO said, “Not only had God placed me in the midst of some incredible young women, He had also given me the opportunity to serve with hundreds of women who continually overcome life’s challenges in order to serve God and others. The theme of the LWML RMD Convention, “God: Our Fortress and Refuge,” suddenly seemed even more fitting: I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” (Psalm 91:2)

Not only will the 2017 National LWML Convention be in our district, it will be the 75th anniversary of the LWML. Our diamond jubilee! Come be a part of this joyous celebration and know that “Jesus Christ is above all.”

More information and the application form is available at lwmlrmd.org. The application is also available on page 11. Please send the application or any questions to Kelsey Hall at comygwomen@lwmlrmd.org.

ToolKit Ideas

Mission Service—Human Care—Gifts From the Heart. Whatever you call it, here are some ideas to help your society, zone, or district to SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS!

At the 2016 Convention this summer, our ladies were generous to donate items for shipping to our servicemen. They have been distributed in many places, and were

VERY much appreciated! Thank you all for your generosity. At the previous District Convention in 2014, you provided Orphan Grain Train with School Kit items. What an outpouring again! Now what? Here are some kit ideas to get you started; feel free to mix and match.

Shut-In Visit Kit

Would your pastor like to take some items with him as he makes Home Visits to shut-ins? How about a Shut-In-Visit Kit? He could grab a few items best suited for the shut-in on his way out the door.

- Address book filled with family, friends, etc.
- Large print calendar with family birthdays, etc. entered. One women entered when visitors came by, so she could more easily remember to show her family.
- Playing cards
- Crossword/Sudoku puzzle books
- Light-up magnifier
- CD of inspirational music/local church service
- Homemade heating pads (made with rice)
- Personal hygiene items (shampoos, lotions, lip balms)
- Bible-themed bookmark/tract (Mustard Seeds in large print!)

Cancer Care Kit

- Washcloths (colorful, fun ones)
- Slipper socks
- Devotional book (check the lwml.org website!)
- Hat or scarf
- Word puzzle or Sudoku book
- Hard candies

New Baby Kit

Do you have a Crisis Pregnancy Center nearby? How about a New Baby Kit?

- Baby powder
- Baby Wash
- Baby Lotion
- Fleece blanket
- Q-tips
- Socks
- Washcloths
- Pacifier
- Baby Toy

More ideas to come!

Servant Activities for the LWML 2017 Convention

In addition to the school supplies, we are asking for items to provide materials and supplies for the other projects we will be supporting during the Servant Activities. We are also planning to assemble 3,000 personal care kits and tie 150 quilts and 480 fleece blankets for Lutheran World Relief (LWR).

We are asking the Rocky Mountain District to contribute the following items:

68 Untied Quilts

The quilts are to be made according to the specification of LWR lwr.org/get-involved/quilts.

LWR quilts should measure approximately 60" x 80". Full-size quilts best serve adults and children as they grow older. Please donate only full-size quilts.

The ultimate purpose of a quilt is to provide warmth, so please choose your fabrics and filler accordingly. Even in warmer climates, temperatures can drop dramatically at night, requiring a quilt with sufficient filler.

Place a piece of fabric measuring 64" x 84" right side down on the table, followed by a filler measuring 60" x 80", and then another piece of fabric, also measuring 60" x 80", right side up on top of the filler. Pin the layers in place.

Bring the edges of the 64" x 84" piece over the top, pin, and machine-stitch the edge, using a zigzag stitch if possible.

Since the quilts are being tied at the convention, as a part of the Servant Activities, you may want to leave the pins in place, so all the layers stay together for tying.

563 Backpacks

The backpacks will be used to distribute the school supplies we have been collecting for LWR and the Navajo Mission in New Mexico. The pattern for the backpack can be found on our website, lwmlrmd.org and also a copy was given to your zone president at the fall rally.

1,350 Towels

The dark colored bath-size towels will be used as part of the personal care kits.

This could be a servant project for your society to collect or make during the holidays. How can you finance these projects? Thrivent Choice dollars can help. If you have a Thrivent account, you can go online and request funds. Items collected can be sent with your zone president when they attend the February 2017 Board of Directors.

Deadline to receive these items is April 15, 2017.

Favors for the 2017 National Convention

Does your LWML group crochet or knit? Or are there members who are interested in learning? What a wonderful way to connect with each other!

Volunteers are needed to crochet or knit dishcloths and "scrubbies" as favors for the convention delegates. Your LWML group gets to decide on your design which will be created in colors of purple, lilac, or combination with white.

If crocheting and knitting is not your forte, maybe you are a sewing machine embroiderer extraordinaire. Volunteers are also needed to embroider, on a sewing machine, "LWML" in ½-inch white block letters, on already purchased purple bandanas.

2017 Convention Banner Design

It's time once again for banner designs! Do you have a creative flair for design or a passion to draw?

The 37th biennial convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League is already in the planning stages. We are seeking a special design for our district banner. This banner will be carried by our president, Sylvia Bean, during the opening ceremonies of the Albuquerque, New Mexico convention, June 22-25, 2017.

Theme: "Jesus Christ Above All"

Scripture Reference: Therefore God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name. (Philippians 2:9)

Goal Statement:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, through Word and Sacrament, I will proclaim Jesus Christ above all.

Convention Objectives:

Each convention attendee will be:

- Encouraged through worship and Bible study.
- Equipped to share His message of salvation.
- Engaged in celebrating God's faithfulness while serving the Lord with gladness.

Banner Designs Guidelines

- Illustrate the design on an 8 1/2" x 11" sheet of unlined paper or graph paper of similar size;
- Submit the design in full color;
- Include an explanation of how the banner design depicts the theme of the LWML convention;
- Include the name, address, and phone number of the designer and the name of the society and church;
- Advise as to whether the designer or the society is willing to make the banner. If not, the LWML RMD Executive Committee will select someone to make the banner;
- The district will pay for the cost of the materials, if requested;
- At the February 2017 meeting of the LWML RMD Board of Directors, the design to be used will be selected;
- By February 1, 2017, please send your design and other required information to the VP of Communications: Lesley Nordmeyer, 551 Shoshone St., Grand Junction, CO 81504 (email: lnordmeyer@q.com)

Completed Banner Specifications

- Finished banner size is to be 3' x 5' and will be carried lengthwise. If you add fringe, it may be longer;
- Use of the convention logo is NOT permitted, but the design must be based on the convention theme "Jesus Christ Above All";
- The banner may be any color;
- The name, ROCKY MOUNTAIN DISTRICT, must be on the front of the banner. The name may be abbreviated, and any size letters may be used. To help identify our district's banner when rolled up, a small identifying tag naming our district will be placed on the lower left hand corner of the back side of the banner;
- The banner should be attached to a 1" dowel stick with an eye screw on each end, laying the cord flat along the rod and knotting it on the outside of each screw eye. The cord (heavy enough to support the weight of the banner) will stretch when the banner is hung. A set of ties is to be sewn on the back of the banner, 12" from the top and another set of ties 12" from the bottom to secure the banner to the pole. A pole and stand for the banner will be provided at the convention site by the host committee.

Thank you for sharing your time and talent!

We will be ready to let our love for Christ show in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Meeting Ideas

It is Thanksgiving time, and a time to remember the blessings of the people in our lives. How about taking a moment to think of them at your next meeting? Bring a few thank you notes and ask each society member to take a minute and write a note to someone that has touched their life. Send or give the letter to that person. It could be a family member, a dear friend, someone in LWML, a grocery worker, or someone else special. Think out of the box and make a day special for someone. Blessings to all of you as you serve Our Lord.

Remember to send your mites each month to our RMD Treasurer.
