Every One His Witness Workshop

There are still many who do not yet know Christ; many with whom we cross paths in our everyday lives.

LCMS developed this Every One His Witness program for LWMLers and pastors who were to attend the 2017 convention, but this workshop is now available to all LCMS members. This evangelism-learning opportunity is limited to 60 participants, and the LWML RMD is one of five districts who are hosting a workshop.

The Every One His Witness program will help participants learn relational, contextual witnessing through such resources as Luther's Small Catechism and the L-A-S-S-I-E approach of Listen-Ask-Seek-Share-Invite-Encourage.

The Rev. Mark Wood, director of LCMS Witness & Outreach will be presenting this workshop.

LWML Rocky Mountain District is sponsoring this workshop which will be held Saturday, May 13, 2017, at Eternal Savior Lutheran Church, 2688 North Park Drive, Lafayette, Colorado, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Reservations are required. Contact Sylvia Bean at president@lwmlrmd.org or frank.sylvia.bean@gmail.com to make your attendance and/or lodging reservation.

LCMS has agreed to pay for up to one night's lodging with 2 persons to a room, for those attendees coming from outside the Denver area who would need Friday night lodging. A block of rooms at Ramada, Northglenn have been reserved and are available until May 1, 2017. You are responsible for your own travel expenses. There is no fee for the workshop, and the noon meal will be provided.

Make your reservations today, you won't want to miss this great opportunity to learn more about witnessing. Use the flyer/bulletin insert (page 11) for publicizing.

May 1, 2017 deadline, if a room is needed for the Every One His Witness workshop on May 13, 2017 in Lafayette, Colorado.

A Time to Bloom

Isn't it fun to watch the earth "wake up" from winter and see the trees, bushes, and flowers leaf and bloom? As we observe the changes of new life in the world around us during this Easter season, we are reminded of Jesus bringing new life to us through His death and resurrection. Eph. 2:4-7 ... God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. And God raised us up with Christ...in order that he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. (NIV)

We were dead in our trespasses and sins, but God made us alive with Christ so that each morning we are new again, "clothed" with His "bloom" of forgiveness and salvation, giving us the opportunity to "bloom" for Him wherever and whenever He has need of us. Romans 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Not only does He provide for our redemption, but He feeds our souls through the Sacraments, supplying us with the "means" to "bloom" for Him. All thanks and praise to God!

Wow, it's wonderful how many people from LWML RMD have used their gifts and talents to "bloom" for Christ through the prayers, words and deeds given to help provide for the 2017 LWML Convention in Albuquerque, NM. It won't be long until the Convention, and there are still opportunities to "bloom" in the planning, coordinating, and work yet to be completed. Thank you to all from the Rocky Mountain District, who through their participation, have "bloomed" for Jesus by sharing their time, talent, or treasure for this convention.

We've met and surpassed the requested supplies for the servant activities and favors! If you have collected items to still donate—those will be used also.

Palenschat, Four Corners; Joline Christensen, Northeastern; Christie Peebles and Nancy Krueger, Northern; Janet Krogh, North Central; Norma Rivera, Northern New Mexico; Judy Piepkorn, Pecos; Anita Werner, Rio Grande; Shelley Stewart, South Central; Jeannette Kuehnert, Southern; and Donna Cochran, Western.

God's Word

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness. 2 Timothy 3:16

Please take a long moment to truly appreciate this: How wonderful it is that God has actually spoken to you and that you have His Word in this book we call the Holy Bible....

God has spoken so distinctly and carefully in human words so that all might understand, young and old, children and fully mature, ...even if they are fools, they shall not go astray" (Isaiah 35:8) Most amazing, is that God has told us of things that no human being could ever have imagined, words that are able to make us wise unto salvation in Jesus Christ.

I have met people who sincerely cherish their Bibles. One such woman was named Stella. Stella's Bible could always be found on the lamp stand beside her recliner with just two exceptions. The first, when Stella took her Bible with her to Bible Class or LWML. The other occasion—when her old and worn Bible was not in its place on the lamp stand beside her recliner—was when it was in her lap.

Stella diligently read her Bible. Whenever a game of Bible Trivia was played, she was made to play using the "expert cards" and the rest of us would use the "beginner cards" and nevertheless, Stella always won the game. She knew her trivia, but she could also find in her Bible everything she needed whenever she needed it. If she was melancholy, she would read and be happy. If she was troubled, she would read and be worry free. If she was burdened by sin, she would read of the forgiveness of her sins. If she was doubtful, she would read and be certain. There was always something in her Bible for her. There was always something there that she needed. Unlike Stella, some have no use for the Bible. They don't know why they should read it, because they don't know what it contains.

I have heard the Bible described as "a house with many rooms." Have you ever contemplated buying a particular house? You don't get acquainted with a house by standing outside and looking at it. You have to go inside, go into each room, inspect the closets, go into the basement, the garage, the attic, and the crawlspace.

It is that way with the Bible. If you are going to love it, you have to know your way around in it. If you want to know your way around in it, you have to enter into all of its rooms. That happens when you read it diligently like Stella did. When you make underlines in it as to when something is meaningful at that time, taking it to heart.

Just as with a house, it is necessary for you to have the right key if you want to go in. Just so, Stella possessed the key that opened all the rooms in the Bible. That key is Jesus. You can read of the key in verses such as John 3:16 or Luke 24:27, And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning Himself.

If Jesus lives by faith in your heart as your Lord and Savior, you have the key and He will lead you from room to room, and you will discover a most wonderful thing. Everything that is written in the Bible is written in order that God would be glorified in Jesus Christ. Jesus is not only the key to God's Word, He Himself is God's Word made flesh. You will find Jesus all the way through, from the first page to the last.

That is what made Stella so adoring of her Bible. She never read it in vain, she always found what she was looking for, her Lord and Savior, Jesus. In her Bible, she heard His voice and received everything she needed for her life and salvation. Your Bible will give you those things too.

Through it, she received the forgiveness of sins and peace with God, as will you. Then there will be no book dearer to you because it is God Himself speaking to you.

On the Second Sunday of Easter 2001, Stella's son-in-law came to see if she was getting ready for worship. He found her in her recliner, her Bible in her lap. She was ready to go...and already gone.

Make it a Priority

Start your day with Jesus. Get to know Him on a deeper level daily.

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. Can you find this scripture in the Bible? Do you know which Gospel it is in? What about the parables? Where are they listed? How about the Lord's prayer and the Beatitudes?

During the Lenten season our pastors taught us what Jesus endured on the cross. He conquered sin and death, and therefore we need not worry about the future. Can you name a few people in your life who do not know the Lord? Most of us can; that's where we need to be the best friend ever and tell them, show them what He did for us so they may have eternal life too.

There's hope for the future. People who do not know the Lord weep with no hope to ever see their loved ones again. We grieve but only for a little while. That's scripture, but where is it in the Bible? Let's make it a priority to tell them about our hope!

Summer's here, and it's a perfect time to go on a picnic or a long walk with that person to tell them the hope we have in the future when everything seems to look bleak. Pray, and ask God to give you the right words to open that dialog. Jesus is depending on you, too, because He has already put them in your life!

The convention is just a few short weeks away, and the LWML will be celebrating 75 years! Can you believe it? Many of us learned about LWML through our grandmothers, and God knew when LWML was newly formed, just how many lives would be touched!

Yours was and perhaps you will be the very grandmother who brings more to Him!

Make it a priority to stop in "The Grace Place Chapel" at the convention. Pray for the lost ones in your family, and ask the Lord to help you be that very person to tell the Good News to them. There will be prayer request baskets on the table in the chapel and at all information booths. Be sure to give your concerns to the Lord. There will be a pastor available for you in the chapel during the convention. Remember the verse in the song that says, "take it to the Lord in prayer?" He is our friend, and you are never alone. Nothing is too big for Him to handle, and He promises you His peace. You can count on that!

Make it a priority to thank God for the 75 years He has blessed LWML. Look how far we have grown! The Young Women Representatives (YWRs) will continue to grow and spread the Gospel as long as is needed! Pray for these ladies and hug a YWR at the convention!

To read more about our YWRs, go to lwml.org, then to "Resources." At the top of the page in the purple tool bar, click "Fellowship." Then a drop box will appear with a heading of "Young Women." Click that also. You can read about the young women you will see at the convention and hopefully meet! They also have a Facebook page that can be clicked on under the title, "Young Women in Mission." Keep these dear young women in your prayers as they are our future!

Concordia Theological Seminary Ft. Wayne Food and Clothing Co-op

The motto of the Ft. Wayne Seminary's Food and Clothing Co-op is Feeding Future Pastors and Deaconesses. Currently, the co-op is serving 312 students and their family members. The co-op is vital to the students, often providing as much as 80–85% of a family's needs. Our $10,000 grant is being used to purchase eggs, milk, ground beef, fresh fruits, vegetables, and other perishable items for the co-op. The food purchased by our grant goes entirely to the students to offset their financial burden.

Jerry Smith is a second career, second-year student seeking a Master of Divinity degree so he can become a pastor. He left his 25-year career at the Journal Star newspaper in Peoria, IL and moved to Ft. Wayne with his family to answer God's call. In a thank you letter to LWML he writes, "Thank you very much for the gift you gave to help us at the Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne. Your gift is making a huge difference in the lives of my family. I am not sure how I could possibly attend seminary without your support.... It takes a huge weight off all of us knowing that you have helped us in so many ways."

Thanks to your generous Mite offerings, $3,000 of our $10,000 grant to the co-op has been paid. May the Lord bless our Mite gathering so we can pay the balance of this and the other grants in a timely manner. Please continue to remember the students, faculty, and staff of the Seminary in your prayers.

2017 National Convention

Marybeth Zurcher
Planner

Anybody getting excited for convention? I sure am. As we prepare for this wonderful time of fellowship and spending time together let us always remember to keep Christ above All and the center of our lives. You may want to have a Taco Tuesday before you come and have each of the members bring something to make the tacos. During this time you could make final arrangements for the convention and possibly have a small prayer service or devotion time. You may also want to have a special mite offering that you could take to the convention from your society. This would also be a good time to get your ladies' input on their desires for the voting for officers and mission grants. This could be passed on to your zone president or delegate for the convention. There are many resources for devotions at the lwml.org website and our own lwmlrmd.org website. God bless you as we continue to serve our Lord and follow in His footsteps.

2017 National Convention Update

We're on the home stretch on our journey to Albuquerque for the LWML's 75th anniversary celebration! In about six weeks we will be blessed and honored to welcome the many guests and also join with them in worship and other events where we will proclaim His Name above all names.

Host Committee Appointments

We welcome another new Host Committee member: Brenda Ellis from Cody, Wyoming. She has graciously agreed to serve as the Lost & Found Director when Lorene Pope resigned due to health concerns. Please keep Brenda in your prayers for guidance in this new job and also for Lorene's healing and strength according to God's will.

Servant Activities/Favors

Many favors have been shipped to Director Nancy Kraft or were delivered to her after the on-site Host Committee meeting in Albuquerque in March. By the time you read this, Nancy will have had her team assemble 800 favors and readied to adorn the tables on the convention floor Friday morning. All servant activities items will be delivered to Director Cindie's storehouse soon.

Steve Wolters from Montana/Idaho is coordinating the Montana and Idaho shipment of quilts, fleece blankets, backpacks, crayons, and the communion ware. He is donating his transportation costs as the truck will also carry produce from this area for distribution to various places along the way. Thank you, Steve!

Call for Workers

Personnel Data Management Chairman (PDMC) Sheryl VerWey continues to add worker information to the database. At this writing, 366 workers are willing and ready to host this convention! HC Chairmen and Directors are contacting the workers on the list given to them by Sheryl and when the confirmations have been made, the Worker Packets will be mailed. These packets contain the worker registration form, registration discount of $65, special dress order form, and other pertinent papers. As soon as you receive your packet, read the material carefully, and mail the appropriate documents immediately.

Tee Up 4 Mites Golf Outing

Please consider sponsoring a hole for a donation of $100 in memory or honor of a family member or friend. Or perhaps your society could do this as a grant for this biennium. The form can be found on your district's website. All proceeds are given to the LWML's Mission Goal.

Another Tour Added

In order to allow the Host Committee and workers to enjoy an outing after convention work comes to an end on Sunday, Tour New Mexico has added an additional tour from 4-8 p.m. on Sunday. It's an exciting ride up the Sandia Mountain on the tramway to an elevation of 10,387'. By booking your $58 ticket in advance, you will enjoy the ride and 45 minutes at the top of the mountain as a tour guide tells you about the area and history of Albuquerque. Transportation will also be provided and pick you up at the DoubleTree at 4 p.m. and the Fairfield Inn at 4:10 p.m. More information is available at www.lwml.org/2017-convention under Convention Tours Information. Call Tour NM at 800-333-7159 to book your ticket for this amazing mountaintop experience!

Please continue to pray for God's guidance in all convention planning and that all events will be carried out according to His will.

Joyfully serving Him,
